The feature of the Christian ministers' meeting yesterday was a bri-f address of the Reverend Doctor Moore of the M seouri Bible Institute, Columbia, Mb. D ctor Moore stated that three changes should be made in the order of the church services in the Christian churches of the country. The first mentioned war, that no pastor should be required to preach more than once each cunday, and his reason was that it was impossible for him to do his best but once. The Company, filed a petition in the St. Louis Company, filed a petition in the St. Louis County Court yesterday, asking for a franchise to build connecting electric railroads through the county. He wants to lay single or double tracks with all necessary spurs and to extend the branch roads to the more thickly populated ections of the county. He offers to cross the public roads in a manner prescribed by the ceurt, to rain cuts every hour and to charge a fare of 1½ cents per mile. He wants to run passenger, express and mail cars. The railroads that he is now operating or that he will hereafter build will be operated under the new franchise he asks, if it is granted. He offers the county 2½ per cent of the gross earnings of the proposed road, will begin work in one year, and offers to incorporate a company within thirty days.

Mr. Houseman explained that his idea was to build feeders for the various eastand-west railroads in the county. Although hi is not definitely decided, he will probably build the first road from Manchester north to a point on the Olive Street road and thence northward to connect with the tracks of the St. Louis, St. Charles and Western Railroad Company. ## New England Methodists Criticise Lewis Hoy Probably Fatally In-Practice of Navy.

Rockville, Conn., April 7.-The Southern New England Methodist Conference at its ession here to-day adopted a resolution exsession here to-day adopted a resolution ex-pressing the belief of the conference that the practice in the United States Navy of having inspection on Sunday morning op-erates greatly against the interest of the religious service held afterwards by the chapitains; also that the chap'nins are piaced at much disadvantage and are brought into disrespect by the character of the uniforms they are required to wear, and by the lower remuneration which they receive as com-pared with that of other officers of the same grade.

LOCAL ELECTIONS IN OHIO. Democratic Judge at Cincinnati

Beaten for Re-election.

Cincinnati, O., April 7.-Reports from the local elections of the municipalities and townships in Ohio to-day show that cool and unfavorable weather generally prevailed and unfavorable weather generally prevailed and that a light vote was cast, with very little interest except in a few cities. In Cincinnati W. H. Jackson (Dem.), who has served on the Superior Bench for the last five years, was defeated for re-election by Probate Judge Howard Ferris, by more than 16,000 in a total vote of 42,000, which is only about half of the total yote registered last November. rered last November.

Reports from other cities indicate about the usual proportion of votes for each party, local issues being most prominent.
